

[CM S] October Newsletter

SLU Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies <cmr@lu.edu>

Thu 10/3/01 10:04 AM

To: Thomas Madden <thoma.madden@lu.edu>

October Newsletter

Medievalists Return to the Fall Semester

Two of the world's most distinguished scholars in the history, art, and literature will be in residence this fall. This is a special reminder of the Fall semester.

Director, Charles

Hillenbrand and Robert Hillenbrand, both of the University of St Andrews and the Pius II Library

ry

and its Special Collections.

"There are few institutions in the world that can match Saint Louis University for its wealth of research materials and its extraordinary resources of talent in the fields of medieval and early modern studies," remarked Professor Charles Hillenbrand. "It is a privilege to return to NEH Research Fellows. We particularly enjoy working with the world-class graduate students at SLU and

In recognition of this excellence, the Honorable Order of Monarchs, a fraternal society, has donated funds to establish an annual grant of $ 000 to support the research of doctoral student [Name] in the field of [Field]. The grant will be used for [Purpose].

transcribed

---

- The Pre-Modern Seminar will meet o

